CAPT. KNAPP IS TO FEED THE POOR

Capt. Knapp, of the Salvation Army, is in the midst of the Xmas effort, and claims there are many poor who need cheer at this particular time, and asks of the general public its heartfelt interest and co-operation in this worthy effort.

The army is counting on supplying about fifty baskets which will cost us in the neighborhood of $7 each, and besides will feed about 350 homeless men.

Last Xmas the army officers had the pleasure of giving away 100 Xmas boxes, which with turkey dinner, besides 600 presents were given to the children.

CHRISTIANITY AND MODERN NOVEL

Mrs. R. S. Farnsworth will be the speaker at the meeting of the Sunday Night club in the parish house of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Twenty-fourth street and Grant avenue, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Farnsworth's recognized ability as a reader and interpreter of literature makes her subject one of great interest and importance. "Christianity and the Modern Novel." The meeting is open to the general public and there is no admission and no collection taken.

A. R. White will be the soloist.

BEN-HUR WILL GIVE SPECIAL MATINEE

Manager Joseph Goss Secures Concession By Wire From Klaw & Erlanger

Because of the heavy demand for seats for the two night performances of Ben-Hur and to make sure that all out-of-town visitors will have an opportunity to see the show, Manager Goss of the Orpheum, yesterday made arrangements by wire with Klaw & Erlanger for a matinee on next Tuesday afternoon.

The railroads have made special rates and people are coming from Farmington, Brigham City and intermountain points.

The demand for seats has left only a few in the back part of the house for the evening performances and the matinee assures the visitors an opportunity to see the big spectacular show.

The curtain will go up for the matinee promptly at 2 o'clock, and the audience must be seated before that time. The matinee performance will be the same in every detail as the evening performance. A force of men is now at work making necessary changes to stage the chariot race, which is said to be one of the most exciting events ever seen on a stage. When Lew Wallace wrote Ben-Hur he meant to portray the life of an unbeliever who was converted to Christianity.

EXHIBITS ARE TO BE MADE IN OGDEN

According to plans which are now being formulated by several organizations of the city, January 20 to 25, inclusive, is to be made the convention and exhibition week for the season of 1912-1913.

During that week the annual conventions of the State Horticulturists' association, Utah Dry Farmers' association and State Dairymen's association will be held in Ogden.

It has now been definitely decided to hold an annual exhibit of machinery, foodstuffs and Utah-made products during the same week, the arrangements having progressed to the point of securing the Kline building, 315-317 Twenty-fourth street, for the big show. While a definite decision has not yet been reached on this point it is probable that the annual poultry show will also be held during the same week.

The organizations behind the movement are the Weber club, Ogden Publicity bureau, Ogden Retail Merchants' association and the Ogden Manufacturers and Jobbers' association.

The building in which the annual products show is to be held covers a ground space of 77x35 feet.

According to the present arrangement the entire lower floor will be devoted to machinery and appliances of interest to dry farmers, dairymen and horticulturists. On the second floor the foodstuffs and Utah products exhibit will be located.

There will be a Ben-Hur Matinee Tuesday at 2 p. m. Seats now on sale.

MATTSON SELECTS OFFICE DEPUTIES

T. L. Holman has been named as chief deputy in the office of the secretary of state, to take the position January 1 next.

Announcement of his appointment to this position was made yesterday by Secretary of State-elect David Mattson.

Other deputies in the office of the new secretary of state will be M. E. Karchner Jr. of Provo and Miss Carolyn Williams and Miss Selma C. Stanford of Salt Lake.

These appointments will complete the office force of the new secretary of state with the exception of one or two stenographers who will be temporarily employed during the session of the state legislature.

Mr. Holman, the new chief deputy, has been prominent in Republican politics for the past four years. He is at present a member of the state legislature, having been elected in 1909 and re-elected in 1911.

Mr. Karchner is the present county clerk of Utah county. He has been county clerk of that county for the past four years and was not a candidate for re-election at the recent election.

Miss Williams is the only member of the office staff of Secretary of State C. S. Tinger who will be retained by Mr. Mattson. Miss Williams has been in the office of the secretary of state for several years and is regarded as one of the most valued and competent employees of the department.

Miss Stanford is a daughter of S. A. Stanford. She is at present a stenographer in the office of W. R. Hutchinson, where she has been employed for the past five years. She comes to the office of the secretary of state highly recommended.

CONCERT IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

A splendid example of the high degree of perfection that has been attained by American talent in the art of music was that given by the Bergen-Marx concert company last night in the Weber Academy, before a capacity audience.

A master of song interpretation, with a baritone voice equal even to that of an opera, perfect diction, a wide repertoire and an obliging personality, which makes his work all the more delightful, Bergen has become a feature of the Weber Academy lecture course. Mr. Bergen was indeed wise to make his original program short, for he was required to sing the "Prologue to Pagliacci" and the "Charge of the Light Brigade," by special request. And encores by unanimous request, and fifteen numbers sung with success in an evening, is a compliment to the ability of any singer.

A feature of interest was the story told by Mr. Bergen of the composition of his two request numbers. The former is, of course, well known and the musical setting of the latter was composed by Mr. Bergen while he was singing as a choir boy at 12 years of age.

The Redpath Lyceum bureau has surrounded Mr. Bergen with a most excellent company this season.

Leon Marx, for thirteen years violinist with the Thomas orchestra of Chicago, and last season concertmeister with the Chicago Grand Opera company, is one of the foremost violinists on the American stage and his playing last evening was a revelation. Mr. Marx is a man of fine sensibilities, slight of stature, unassuming in his conversation—the same may be said of Mr. Bergen—and every inch a musician of highest degree. He also received the unqualified approval of the audience.

It doubtless will be a surprise to many to learn that Mr. Schuchard has just passed his nineteenth year for, in addition to playing the accompaniments to every number on the long program quite satisfactory to his fellow artists—and that is about as good a compliment as a rising young pianist could be given—he made a hit on his own account with two solos, one by request. His ensemble work in the trio number completed an evening's work of which he may well be proud.

Mr. Dressel, cellist, was well received in two numbers and the instrumental trio proved a most enjoyable close to the artistic program.

The program follows:

Concert Etude (in F sharp major) MacDowell.

Mr. Schuchard.

Russian Fantasia (Wieniaski).

Encore—Humoresque (Dvorak).

Mr. Leon Marx.

Pilgrims' Song (Text by Tolstol).

Encore—To My First Love (Lohr).

Mr. Alfred Hiles Bergen.

Sonata (in A major) (1780).

A. D. Boccherini.

Encore—Berceuse (Mlynarski).

Mr. Dressel.

PART TWO.

(a) I Am Thy Harp (Woodman).

(b) Sing Me a Song of a Lad That Is Gone (Homer).

(c) A Little Dutch Garden (Loomis).

Mr. Bergen.

(a) En Bateau (Debussy).

(b) Caprice Viennois (Kreisler).

(c) Liebesfreud (Kreisler).

(All Wiener Tanzweisen No. 1).

Encore—Hungarian Gypsy Dances (Nocze).

Mr. Marx.

(a) In the Time of Roses (Reichardt).

(b) The Pauze Dive (Homer).

(c) A Morning Hymn (Geo. Henschel).

Encore (1)—By special request—

"The Charge of the Light Brigade" (Bergen).

(2) "Mein Schatzlein" (Reger).

(3) "You'd Better Ask Me" (Lohr).

(4) "Annie Laurie" (Lohr).

(5) "The Rosary" (Nevin).

(6) "A Kiss in the Rain" (Bergen).

Mr. Bergen.

By request—Prelude in C sharp minor (Rachmanoff).

Mr. Schuchard.

Trio—Danse Macabre (Saint-Saens).

Messrs. Marx, Dressel and Schuchard.

FACULTY WINS IN SCHOOL SHOOT

In the matter of marksmanship, the faculty team of the Ogden high school proved to be superior to the rifle team of the high school cadets and won the match last night at the Armory.

When the last shot had been fired, the teachers had a total of 283 points, against 270 points of the cadets.

From the standing position, the students gave their tutors a hard match, failing by one point from tying the score.

Getting Most for Your Christmas Money

Here's a very important question: "How can I get most for my Christmas money?"

When most of us have two places for every available dollar, a little light on how to get most for that money should come well-comely.

First: If among your Christmas wants are items of apparel for the boy or man, you can certainly get most for your money at Wrights' Removal Sale.

Second: If among your wants are toys or household goods, you can certainly get most for the money in Wrights' Economy Basement.

Third: If the list calls for any of the items such as sold in the other departments of this store, you can get most for the money here because of the many sale prices which are now in effect.

Fourth: If you want to make selections from any of the departments mentioned, and lack the ready cash, you may make them now and pay the bill later—only a small deposit will hold anything you want.

Fifth: You can probably shop most economically by taking the morning for it—when there is ample time for careful selecting.

Wright's

J. Hinkle, the Cleveland promoter, to wrestle Gehring in Cleveland in February.

Promoter Harry Heagren of this city is in correspondence with Gehring with a view to having the match between the world's leading middleweight grapplers in Salt Lake City early in the new year. Yokel would prefer meeting Gehring in this city, but the latter naturally wants the bout staged in his home town.

"Hinkel offers us a purse of $1000 or 60 per cent of the receipts, which he says, will exceed $3000," says Yokel. "We can get twice that sum in Salt Lake and I am trying to persuade Gehring to come here for the bout. However, if he will not come to meet me, I will go to him, and we surely will meet within the next three months."

Yokel recently wrestled Gehring in Cleveland and neither secured a fall, Gehring being awarded the match on points. The men wrestled in this city several years ago without a fall, the bout being declared a draw. When the two next meet whether in Cleveland or in this city, it will be to a finish, best two in three falls.

TWO MEN ARE SENTENCED TO PRISON

This morning Judge Howell sentenced C. A. Davidson to serve two years in the state penitentiary for the crime of burglary, to which he pleaded guilty a few days ago. Besides stealing a kit of tools belonging to M. M. Sorensen, Davidson said that on the same night he stole over a hundred cans of fruit.

He is a married man and his family has resided in this city for some time, but he has not been living with his wife recently. He stated that his son was at home the night he committed the theft but that he did not know where the plunder came from, nor did he know that it had been stolen. Davidson said that drinking caused him to commit the crime. It was his first offense, however, and the court was inclined to be more lenient with him than with William Roberts, whom he sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary for burglary.

Roberts pleaded guilty to the theft of seven cases of eggs, the property of the H. L. Griffin company, offering no excuse for the commission of the crime except that he was drunk. A little questioning on the part of the court disclosed the fact, however, that the man did a good job for a drunken man and that he had evidently been in the stealing business before. The two men will be taken to the penitentiary Monday.

BIDS FOR THE BRIDGES IN CANYON

Engineer Joseph West of the Ogden Rapid Transit company reports that grading on the Hermitage-Huntsville extension is progressing rapidly and that there is no longer a doubt that the company will succeed in getting the grading done this winter in places where high water of next spring might interfere with the construction work.

Concrete abutments to bridges are being made and will be completed within a short time.

The roadbed follows the north side of Ogden river from the power dam to Huntsville and in that distance there will be one bridge. Five steel bridges about the size and style of the one spanning the river at the mouth of the canyon will be built between the Hermitage and Huntsville.

On Monday, the engineer says, the company will receive bids for the construction of six steel bridges, five for the Ogden canyon division and one for the Logan division. Contracts will be awarded in the near future. The bids are being taken at this time so as to give ample time for the delivery of the steel in the spring.

The engineer states that construction work on the bridges will be resumed after high water in the spring, and that the road will be completed to Huntsville by early summer.

ENGLAND TO FLOG WHITE SLAVERS

London, Dec. 14.—The royal assent was given today to a bill just passed by parliament instituting flogging as the penalty in case of convictions of "white slave" traffic. The Scotland Yard authorities are now organizing a special staff of plain clothes officers, who will enforce the act.

The engineer states that construction work on the bridges will be resumed after high water in the spring, and that the road will be completed to Huntsville by early summer.

SHE PLOTTED TO KILL HER HUSBAND

Moose Jaw, Sask., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Ralph Warwick, a pretty young English woman, confessed tonight at a coroner's inquest that she and Stanley Price, a neighboring farmer, had plotted to kill her husband at their home near here three weeks ago and had succeeded.

Price committed suicide here at a hotel last Sunday, and it was at the inquest over his body that the woman made the confession.

Mrs. Warwick gave as the motive for the murder, the officials say, a desire to gain possession of her husband's property and marry Price. She said that Price met Warwick in the latter's stable one night about three weeks ago and struck him on the head with a piece of scantling, killing him instantly. He then threw the body under the horses' feet in an effort to make it appear that he had been trampled to death.

The police traced the crime to Price, who came to Moose Jaw, where he killed himself.

AGED MOTHER OF LOST BOY IS DEAD

Philadelphia, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Sarah Anne Ross, the mother of Charlie Ross, who was kidnapped 38 years ago, died at her home here last night, aged 78.

She was the widow of Christian K. Ross.

The fate of Charlie Ross, who was stolen when he was 4 years old, has never been learned, although numerous clues from all sections of this country and Europe were followed by detectives employed by the distracted parents.

STEAMSHIPS STOP GOING TO SERBIA

Belgrade, Dec. 14.—The Austrian Steamship company's ships having regular sailings to Serbia, stopped their services today. The Austrian authorities are enforcing rigorous regulations in the passenger service at the Austro-Serbian frontier stations.

Even Austro-Hungarian subjects, of whom some thousands are engaged in business in Belgrade, if they visit the frontier towns on business, are not permitted to return unless they are over 42 years old.

CHANCE WILL DRAW A PRINCELY SALARY

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Highliners, today announced before leaving Chicago that he intended to pay Frank Chance the biggest salary ever given a baseball manager.

He didn't name the sum, but it is a cinch that the P. L. will draw the $20,000 that he is said to demand. The original "informal" offer to Chance was $18,000 and a 5 per cent share of the club's earnings. This would undoubtedly exceed the $20,000 mark. But it may be that Chance prefers a straight salary. He is likely to get whatever he asks, because Mr. Farrell and the rest of the American league club owners are overjoyed at landing him.

President Farrell's departure left only one out-of-town magnate in Chicago. This was Jim McAleer, and he promised to leave us before the end of another day.

The Cleveland representatives found fault with Mr. Callahan, alleging that he started the story about trading for Joe Jackson, thus giving Joe a chance to hold out for more coin. Jim denied that he had been the author of that novel and added that he wouldn't give any three of his ball players for Joe.

"I might trade one man for him," said Cal, "but I wouldn't give three. Jackson hits .481 in Cleveland and .007 on the road."

LEGAL.

ALIAS SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Second Judicial District, in and for the County of Weber, State of Utah.

Dora Bennett, Plaintiff, vs. William Bennett, Defendant.

The State of Utah to the Said Defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after service of this alias summons upon you, if served within the county in which this action is brought; otherwise, within thirty days after service, and defend the above entitled action; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you, according to the demand of the complaint, which, within ten days after service of this summons, will be filed with the clerk of said court.

This action is brought to recover a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony between you and the plaintiff, and for general relief.

DAVID JENSON, Plaintiff's Attorney.
P. O. Address, 503-504 First National Bank Building, Ogden, Utah
